Municipal Court of Renton: Court Proceedings During a Pandemic

Bonnie Woodrow and Judge Kara Murphy Richards will take us into life in the Municipal Court of Renton, what has changed during this pandemic, what endures – lesson learned. Judge Murphy Richards will also tell us about her appointment and the newly established Renton Community Court.

Women of Action
at home and in the courthouse

Bonnie has worked with the court for 30 years. For the last eight, she has served as Court Services Director. She is the mother of four and a proud grandmother. Kara has also been with the court for 30 plus years; she has served as a probation officer, prosecuting attorney, and domestic violence legal advocate. Following her nine years as a Judge Pro Tem, in December 2019 Kara was appointed by Mayor Law to create and preside over Renton's first Community Court. Kara is also a mom and grandmother. Of note, newly inducted, Jessica Giner, also a mom, is their colleague, she is a Judge Pro Tem for King, Pierce, and Snohomish Counties.

Rotarians Take Action

Upon hearing Reverend Bianca R. Davis-Lovell describe a REACH HOUSING Program, Michael O'Halloran immediately saw a way for many of us to pool a relatively small amount to have a big impact. He and four others have already pledged $50.00 toward the $500 needed to cover the cost of a welcome kit for a family moving into REACH arranged permanent housing.

If you can help, please send your check to Rotary Treasurer c/o Rotary Club of Renton
PO Box 509, Renton, WA 98057

Mark your check REACH/WELCOME KIT.

When $500 has been reached, Treasurer, Lora Ueland will mail a Donation to REACH.
