Rotary Opens Opportunities

Seahawks and the 12s

Mike Flood, VP Community Relations, has been observing the Seahawks on and off the field since 1997. He knows the players; their good works beyond football create a better community for us all. Upon joining the Seahawks, Michael helped spearhead a campaign to pass Referendum 48, resulting in the new football/soccer stadium and exhibit complex. A Seattle native, Mike earned a B.A. in Industrial Education from UW and an M.A. in Education from UNC. Prior to his joining the Seahawk team, he owned and operated an agricultural flying service in Fort Scott, Kansas. Michael was a Commander in the United States Coast Guard for 20 years before retiring. He flew C130s, Dassault Falcon jets, and H60 Jayhawk helicopters. Today, Mike serves on the boards of the King County Municipal League, Camp Patriot, and the Washington State Leadership Board. In 2019, he was named UNCF's "Person of Year," noted for "Outstanding Service to Veterans" by WA Department of Veterans Affairs, and presented the "I Care About Kids" award from Mentoring Works Washington.
