Aging out of Foster Care: Support for Girls

Meeting Agenda

Rotarian Conversations

Charitable Giving

Aaron Easter and James McClafin

Dr. Natalie Ellington, Executive Director, founded Eileen & Callie's Place, which she named in honor of her mother and mother-in-law in response to a heart cry in 2014. She understood the pain of young women in need of caring, mentoring relationships.

Eileen & Callie's Place, 501(c)(3) organization, is supported by Board Members deeply committed to creating transformative change in the lives of youngsters coming through/aging out of the foster care system. What all learned quickly is mentoring above all, not just housing alone, is what is key to each young woman's success. With listening and affirmation, girls gain confidence and begin to have hope in their future.

"Every girl is just one caring adult away from Success."
