Rotary Opens Opportunities

King County Archives

Jennifer Peters is a dedicated library, archives, and museum professional who has worked in the field for several years. She is focused on engagement, improving access to archives, often through the identification and description of materials. Whether doing reference work or processing collections, she strives to keep learning and continuing to make connections between records, organizations, and communities.

King County

Mission Statement Our mission is to serve the public and agencies of King County by collecting, preserving, holding in trust, and facilitating access to County records of enduring historical value that document its land, people, culture, and governance. Through our service, we strive to foster appreciation and understanding of King County's origins and continuing history.
