News from the Renton Museum of History

We welcome back Elizabeth P. Stewart, Ph.D., Director of the Renton History Museum. who has been a champion of history, the arts and community life here in Renton since May 2006.

We so enjoyed hearing about the current exhibit at the museum, What Difference Do Renton Women Make? We loved the discussion that followed as we explored contributions of significant women in Renton History.

This visit, Liz will tell us about the upcoming traveling exhibit about wildfire, Facing the Inferno: The Wildfire Photography of Kari Greer, organized by the Prichard Gallery of the University of Idaho. Facing the Inferno will be on display from June 4 through July 30. Check out the Museum's Facebook page for more information. Current museum hours: Wed. - Fri., 10 am – 4 pm. Capacity limited to 15 people at a time.

A member of the Small Museums Committee for the American Association for State and Local History (AASLH) and a peer reviewer for the American Alliance of Museums' Museum Assessment Program, Lis is a 25 + year veteran researcher and curator. Before coming to Renton, she worked at McKissick Museum in Columbia, SC, and the Smithsonian Institution's National Museum of American History.
