

Renton Rotary selects Teachers of the Month

April 2021 – As part of their commitment to education, and to celebrate teachers in the Renton School District, each month members of Rotary Club of Renton selects a few teachers as Teacher of the Month.

As part of the recognition, teachers attend Rotary's Teacher of the Month recognition where each teacher is introduced, makes a brief comment about the school and classroom, and receives funds to be used for classroom supplies or instructional materials.

April Teachers of the Month are:

Becca Bland

Grade 3-5 Resource Teacher at Benson Hill Elementary School

Becca attended Western Washington University, where she earned a bachelor's degree in Teaching. Then she attended Seattle University, to earn a master's degree in Special Education. Becca has been teaching for 16 year and have worked with a variety of grades including 1st, 2nd, 3rd and 4th grades as well as special education students within the Resource Learning Center (RLC). In her spare time, Becca keeps busy with her two kids who play sports. She also enjoys gardening when the weather permits. This is Becca's seventh year teaching in the Renton School District.

Mey Lee

Reading Intervention Teacher at Maplewood Heights Elementary School

Mey attended San Jose Christian College where she earned a degree in Bible and Theology/Christian Education and then she attended Bethany College in Scotts Valley, CA where she earned a degree in Applied Professional Studies. Currently, Mey is pursuing a master's degree in Curriculum and Instruction through Western Governors University. She began teaching in California as a substitute teacher then moved to teaching in her own classroom. She took some time away from teaching to raise her children and worked as a freelance Mien Interpreter/Translator where she worked in the medical, social and legal sectors. She transitioned back into education in 2013 as a LAP teacher. Mey enjoys singing and leading choirs involving children, youth and adults within her church. Mey has been teaching with Renton Schools for nine years.

Tracy Robnett

Culinary Arts/Health/Child Development Teacher at Talley High School

Tracy attended Washington State University, where she earned a bachelor's degree in Human Development (Family and Consumer Science). She continued at Washington State University to earn a master's in Secondary Education Focus At Risk Youth. Before becoming a teacher, Tracy earned a degree in Recreation Administration and worked as a Recreation Director for the City of Moscow, Idaho then as the Recreation Supervisor and Camp Director for the City of Tukwila. In her spare time, she enjoys coaching cheer, running her own cake decorating business, geocaching and party planning. This is Tracy's seventh year teaching in the Renton School District.

