What s your Rotary story?

Wednesday, July 7, 2021

Touches Your Heart
Inspires You
Makes You Feel Alive!

Do you have a Rotary story to tell? District 5100 this year is having a Rotary Story Slam. We re all invited to present our Rotary stories to our club, and perhaps at the District 5100 conference next May in Seaside.

Check out the video about this event. Be advised, though. The RotaryStorySlam.com mentioned in the video doesn't  appear to be activated yet. But stay tuned. We ll keep you informed.

Buddy Rose, USFS (ret.), grew up in and has spent his entire adult life living and working in Lewis County. He worked for the U.S. Forest Service in Randle for more than 30 years. After retiring in 2003, Buddy took up freelance writing and wrote hundreds of outdoor articles for The Chronicle newspaper in Centralia. Since 2007, he has been a popular contributor of outdoor and local history articles for the East County Journal in Morton. Buddy is the author of two books: Fire Mountains Treks & Treasures and Stories from Riffe, Wash.

We'll be meeting in person at the Heathman Lodge, but we'll have a Zoom channel as well!
