Real Estate and Lending Update Sharlene Barnum & Nichole Klingerman

From the President 10-28-2021

The District has set aside $500 for each club to use as they see fit ♦ so long as the project fits under a list of the District strategic priorities. David proposed that we use it by celebrating with Sheltercare as a consummation of our partnership ♦ perhaps involving food, gifts for children and possibly some signage.

This is his proposal:

I would like to propose to our Signature Project partners a "meet the Rotarians "holiday" party perhaps with small gifts for children provided by Santa? - where we provide the food/treats and gifts.- we gather on the property and we spend some time interacting with the new residents It could include singing holiday songs, stories and a good time. This would increase the impact of the club, expand the reach and enhance member participation!

E-mail responses from the Board have so far been enthusiastic. Melissa will be checking with Sheltercare to see if this can be arranged. This would fit under the District priority under ♦Expanding the reach of the club ♦ build awareness of Rotary♦s impact and brand♦. This will be discussed by the Board at the November meeting.

Last meeting we discussed a holiday celebration and hoped we might meet at Luke and Francie♦s house. Luke and Francie feels the close contact of so many people in such a small space might not be a good idea. We may need to get creative if we are to make this happen.

I have invited our District Governor, Gerry Kosanovic, to our January 13th meeting and he has accepted and it is on our calendar.

Registration for the Rotary International Convention in Houston on June 4 thru 8 is now open. Go to Rotary.Org or google ♦Rotary International Convention 2022♦. Last year was virtual ♦ this year they♦re going for a full in-person convention.

Don♦t forget to RSVP. See you Thursday.
Jerry
