Presidents August 4th Message

This week I would like to take time to Thank the Program Committee and it's Co-Chairs Nathan Phillips and Michael Syman-Degler. As a club we owe ALL of the members of Committee a great thank you for providing high quality programs, that are of interest during this pandemic. We have recently heard timely talks from the Eugene Police Chief, the State Treasurer, and the Eugene Chamber of Commerce. This month the line up will include the Dean of the Law School at the U of O, the GM of radio station KLCC, the 4-J interim Superintendent and the Eugene Ballet. A truly top tier group of speakers with a variety of interesting topics. Thank you Program Committee!!

This next meeting will be on August 4th which has particular meaning for me. Over the last few years I have given the inspiration on the Tuesday closest to August 4th in honor of this day. But for me to have our meeting on this day, quite a coincidence. The first person who can tell me the significance of what happened on August 4th, 1790, will win a special prize to be awarded at the beginning of the meeting. So be the first to email me the answer, at tgilmour@comcast.net, to collect the prize!!

Best Regards,

Rear Admiral (Retired) Tom Gilmour

August 4th Meeting - U of O Law School

With Marcilynn A. Burke
Dean and Dave Frohnmayer Chair in Leadership and Law, University of Oregon
School of Law

Dean Burke came to Oregon Law in July 2017. Prior to coming to Oregon, she was associate dean at the University of Houston Law Center. During 2009-2013, she served in the Bureau of Land Management of the U.S. Department of the Interior. Initially she was Deputy Director for Programs and Policy and then as the Acting Assistant Secretary for Land and Minerals Management following a 2011 appointment by President Barack Obama. Following her term at the BLM, she resumed her role as associate dean and associate professor of law at the University of Houston Law Center, where she had served as a member of the faculty since 2002. Burke earned her bachelor's degree from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, having been named to Phi Beta Kappa. She then earned her law degree from Yale Law School.

College, exemplify community service at its best. As a child my family lived in Eugene before moving to Everett, Washington, so it feels like coming home. I'm glad to be back in the beautiful Pacific Northwest. 📍

Rondeau previously directed broadcast operations at KSBP in Mission Viejo, Calif. He led the station in 2017 as it partnered on programming with KCSN in Northridge, Calif. Earlier in his career Rondeau was program director and morning anchor for KCLU in Santa Barbara, Calif. The Los Angeles Press Club honored him as Best Radio Anchor in Southern California in 2011 and 2012.

August 18 Meeting - Eugene Ballet and Midtown Arts Center

With Josh Neckles, Executive Director

Josh Neckles, a member of the Rotary Club of Eugene, was named Executive Director of Eugene Ballet in July of 2016 after serving in the positions of Stage Manager, Tour Technical Director, Tour Manager, Finance Manager, Educational Outreach Coordinator, Company Manager and Production Manager for EBC since 1996.

The Ballet has a grand season starting in September at the Hult. How will that play out in our current situation with the Pandemic.

The Midtown Arts Centre continues construction. Tune in for a report on one of the most important new venues for the arts in Eugene.

August 24 Meeting - 4J School District Report

With Interim Superintendent Cydney Vandercar

Cydney Vandercar is the interim superintendent of Eugene School District 4J for the 2020-21 school year. Ms. Vandercar grew up in Lane County and has been an educator and leader in Eugene School District 4J for nearly 30 years. After starting out as a substitute teacher, she taught math for several years before becoming a school administrator. She most recently served as the district's assistant superintendent for administrative services.

Schools, students and the Pandemic. It's on all our minds. Headline news. With the school season about to begin, what are the 4J District plans? How is the district going to deal with our current world. So many questions about the world's most important subject. The kids. Stay tuned.

Business News

The old Hynix Plant has finally been sold!

The enormous Hynix chip factory in Eugene, vacant for a dozen years, could spring back to life next year building video display technology for its new owner, an Ohio company called Stratacache.

Stratacache expects to start a pilot line in Eugene by summer of 2021, with more than 100 workers slowly ramping up production. The privately held company hopes to begin full manufacturing, with several hundred employees, sometime the following year.
