President's Message

By Bruce K. Webber

Hero - a person who is admired or idealized for courage, outstanding achievements, or noble qualities.

With wildfires continuing to burn all across Oregon and our neighboring states, we don't need to look far to find heroes.

I have seen many evacuees interviewed and while scared, devastated and facing many uncertainties their stories of courage, resiliency and optimism for the future are heartwarming.

Those risking their lives every day to contain these fires and get people back into their homes are nothing short of selfless. Firefighters, law enforcement and government and local agencies are all working together to return people to their homes as quickly as possible. Thank you just does not seem like enough to recognize the sacrifices they are making.

Our community has stepped up in amazing ways. Restaurants that were on the brink of closing are feeding evacuees and first responders. Community members are opening respite sites and providing evacuees with supplies to help them navigate a very difficult time. Working with the Red Cross, hotels are providing shelter.

Rotary is responding as well. Last week's newsletter highlighted a couple of areas District 5110 is focusing on to support fire relief efforts. Understanding the devastation our community is facing, the Service Committee will be meeting frequently and is in the process of forming sub-committees to research areas of short and long term need. We would like to approach this as a combined effort with local clubs and/or organizations and a focus on our local community. If you have interest in supporting the efforts of the Service Committee, please email Andrew Buck at andrew.buck@gr8basin.com.
