President's Message

By Deborah S. Knechtel

Rotary Mission: We provide service to others, promote integrity, and advance world understanding, goodwill, and peace through our fellowship of business, professional, and community leaders.

Rotary is where neighbors, friends and problem-solvers share ideas, join leaders, and take action to create lasting change. We are people of action.

In the spirit of this year's Rotary theme ◆ Serve To Change Lives -- we have the opportunity to do good things with and for our community. What other projects can we participate in this next year that can provide this service? It would be great for us to engage in group projects that enhance the visibility of Springfield Rotary while providing services that can help and benefit others. What types of service projects would you like to see us engage in?

Let's serve to change lives!

Weekly Program

Speaker: Liz Lawrence; Jackie Roth and John Moriarty will be there too.

Topic: Oregon Community Foundation: Transforming Generosity Into Impact

Brief Bio for Introduction: Liz is a philanthropic advisor with the Oregon Community Foundation, serving the Southern Willamette Valley and South Coast. Liz helps families and nonprofits create new funds at OCF, supporting their charitable giving goals. Prior to joining OCF, Liz spent 11 years with the McKenzie River Trust, and served on the boards of Lane Arts Council, the Coalition of Oregon Land Trusts, and the Materials Exchange Center for Community

Description: Arts. Born and raised in the Washington DC area, Liz and her husband moved to Eugene in 2008 after college, arriving after a three month cross-country road trip knowing nobody here, with no jobs and no place to live. (Were they courageous or naive? Maybe a little bit of both.) Soon after, Liz started her nonprofit career at BRING Recycling as an Americorps intern. Today she is mom to 2-year-old Ian, enjoys the bounty of her garden, and spends her

Tickets, Tickets, one for a five spot, two for a ten.

By Rae Anne LaMarche

My father told me the story of the pickle vendor who shouted: Pickles, pickles, one for a nickle, two for a dime. Let's change that to Raffle Tickets:

Tickets, Tickets, one for a five spot, two for a ten.

Buy some tickets and see what you'll win.

First prize 3 cases, second prize, two

Third prize 1 case, Party time for you.

Remember to send your wine raffle stubs and money to Rae LaMarche, by July 9th. We will also be collecting at the In-Person Rotary meetings at the Elks Lodge. There will no longer be a pop-up tent scheduled for Thursdays at the Elk's parking lot. If you cannot attend meetings in person, your check and stubs will fit in a plain envelope with 55 cents postage.

Rotary's Four-Way Test

THE FOUR-WAY TEST

Of the things we think, say, or do

The Four-Way Test is a nonpartisan and nonsectarian ethical guide for Rotarians to use for their personal and professional relationships.

1. Is it the TRUTH?
2. Is it FAIR to all concerned?
3. Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
4. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?
