Today's Pledge, Thought, and Song

Today was the first meeting of Napa Sunrise Rotary under the leadership of our 2021-22 Rotary Year President, Brian Doughty. It was also the first meeting in 16 months where there was not aspect of Zoom so we were in-person and pleased to be. President Brian called the meeting to order at the traditional 0715 and called upon Brian Dodd to lead us the the Pledge of Allegiance. Following the Pledge, he provided the following Thought for the Day: "Half of Life is Just Showing Up!" - Brian Dodd and a list of many.

We then settled in for our weekly song and the "Doug Roberts' list of Many Items" that are associated with today. While Songmaster Feutz was putting the final touches on his song guide, Doug regaled us with some choice tidbits about today, of which the following was most intriguing:

On July 8, 1947, the "crash" in Roswell, NM happened and set the world "abuzz"

Then, in keeping with COVID guidelines of the CDC, California, and Napa County, we were led in the "Coffee Song" by Tom Feutz. The caveat, however, is that singing is expected to be kept to a minimum to mitigate the potential spread of the virus. Therefore, we hummed the Coffee Song. A truly different experience! Thanks for being resourceful, Tom!

Today's Visiting Rotarians and Guests of Rotarians

Maddie Mott, daughter of Pete Mott, joined us for our first full in-person meeting. Welcome, Maddie!

Today's Announcements

New Membership Chair, Mike Basayne, presented our newest "Red Badge" to Riley Wilson. Riley hails originally from Louisiana but came to Napa directly from Cincinnati and has been waiting patiently for an in-person meeting to join Napa Sunrise! Welcome to Napa Sunrise, Riley! We look forward to getting to know you and working with you!

President Brian reported that he will be convening the first Board Meeting of his year in the very near future. Please be on the lookout for an announcement.

The 2021-22 Rotary International Theme is "Serve to Change Lives" and can be seen at the bottom of the bulletin.

NOTE: Due to scheduling conflict at Silverado, we are planning to be dark next week. But watch your email for an update as President Brian is working to find an alternative meeting site.

Happy Dollars

Ken Lydon started off the pledge extravaganza by pledging $100 to his daughter's Paul Harris to celebrate her recovery following a disagreement with her appendix that required Ken to miss the Kick-Out Party two weeks ago. He was also $50 happy to Doug Roberts (Doug's choice for use) because Doug is once again the NSR Treasurer and he was also $50 happy to Woody Hedderman's Paul Harris for Woody's assistance with a tree issue that Ken was experiencing.

Gary Lieberstein was pleased to see the hard work that Choolwe Kalulu has done in his renovation of the B & B that previously as owned by a longtime friend and his wife. He also noted that he has two tickets for a horn concert that he cannot attend on August 28th. Contact Gary for the tickets, if interested. Of more importance, however, was the fact that Gary's phone went off.....a definite "no-no". Therefore, Brian was inclined to impose his first official fine....the amount of the fine, however, was not readily known :)

Paul Everett was $25 happy to Eric Keffer for Eric saving his anniversary. Apparently, Paul's anniversary fell on Father's Day so he didn't plan anything only to have his wife ask what they were doing for the anniversary. A quick phone call and Eric saved the day!

Joel Tranmer happily announced $2 for every year of his marriage which he and his wife recently celebrated. That amounted to $104 to his Paul Harris. Congratulations, Joel!

Eric Keffer was $100 happy to the Todd Walker Memorial Fund and $100 happy to his Paul Harris while reporting that last weekend he picked his son up from a Scouting function and saw nothing but pure joy on his son's face. Eric was actively involved in Scouting as a youth and was so proud to see how his son is continuing the journey with Scouting and how it is helping to shape the youth of our society.

Today's Presentation

President Brian's first order of business for his term was to introduce the members of his Board of Directors. Pictured from the left is: Jonny Karpuk (Sergeant-at-Arms), Paul Everett (Vocational Service Director), Justin Gomez (Club Service Director), Eric Keffer (Community Service Director), Brenda Burke (International Service Director), Katie Anderson (Foundation Director), President Brian Doughty, and Mike Basayne (Membership Director). Not pictured, but in attendance, was Angela Hoxsey (Public Relations Director). Not in attendance was Emily Evans (Youth Services Director).

Each director was given the opportunity to give a brief autobiography of themselves as well as what they hope to accomplish in the upcoming Rotary year.

This group will be "movers and shakers" and we are in good hands for the 2021-22 Rotary Year! Congratulations to our Board!
