ROTOGRAM 10/27/21

PRE MEETING CHAT the beatings will continue until morale improves OR until someone helps with writing this weekly missive.

Meeting called to order by Prez Laura Sammel @ 12:10 on the dot!

Invocation: Mister Scott

Pledge: April

GUESTS:

Steve s son, Christopher

2 Interact students from Clearlake HS

The students introduced themselves and gave an update of their club.

28 active members; raised $1500 and donated to grades K-5 for teacher supplies; raised and donated $500 to help renovate their HS disc golf course; volunteering with Tango Mike; taking a field trip to Monterey to meet with their HS interact group, NICE JOB!

SUNSHINE: Kelly Butcher:

Faith bday Oct. 31st. that was apparently a scary delivery.

Denise Combs, Tom Powers. and Don Lange celebrated their Rotary anniversary. Most notably Don with 49 years!!!

DETECTIVE:

Faith for the winning bid on a large painting and then we think maybe donating back to The Ripe Choice.

Mark L. for having a successful fundraiser despite the shrinking barn due to moisture.

David Schwenger for raising our property taxes. That s real power.

April for daring to bring a little culture in her life.

Ruth for visiting national parks and leaving only footprints.

Tom for being the voice of Lake Limo. On to Broadway.

Steve and Elizabeth for a massive road trip while doing shots of Lysol.

GUEST SPEAKER: Maria Valedz (sp), County Registrar of Voters

4 full time employees. Not sure how the half works.

Poll workers are paid. They always need poll workers.

Moving to the old PG&E building very soon. .more room for the ballots.

M-F 8a-5p, come in with any questions.

Motor voter program auto registers you to vote if eligible.

Going forward, all voters will be mailed ballots. Which is why no longer called absentee ballot and now called Vote by Mail .

All ballots must be certified. A few steps needed to verify. Doesn't happen overnight.

78% of voters voted by mail in LC.

Counties share voter registration info so no monkey business.

Meeting Adjourned. NEXT WEEKS SPEAKER: County Librarian and Library Director Christopher Veach will speak on how the library responded to COVID-19 and has continued to serve the public. Christopher will also cover the library's Adult Literacy program and the importance of promoting Literacy in Lake County.
