GUEST SPEAKER: Clark Macabie, Curator/Exec Dir of the Lake County museums in Upper Lake School House Museum; Courthouse Museum in Lakeport; Middletown Museum.

Formerly of the Navy (was at Pensacola in OCS while the movie ❖ Officer and a Gentleman❖ was being filmed and later much experience and education in managing museums. Clark has won many awards on preservation; even had a project featured on the History Channel.

His success in writing many grant proposals has helped keep ❖extra help❖ employees on board and made the museums even more healthy financially than when he took over.

School tours are back.

He would like to challenge local business to sponsor paid interns at the museums.

❖Museums are a place to house our cultural DNA.❖ Well said, Clark.

SUNSHINE: Dave Schlaeger

Andy Bloom ❖ Club anniversary.

Melissa❖s birthday ❖ Nov. 20

Giovanni❖s bday ❖ Nov. 24 or 25. Shares with or around Thanksgiving every year.

He would like more space or at least have everyone think they are there to celebrate his special day.

Lance❖s spouse anniversary ❖ 19 years. Lance❖s wife said it feels like much longer.

DETECTIVE: Pam Harpster fines for:

DMW ❖ apparently frustrated that he cannot use brute force to leave an escape room.

Jeff ❖every week another fine❖ Warrenburg ❖ Apparently Steve Davis is over 55 yet Jeff thought he was 25. There was a car involved. Jeff is still shaking his head.

Faith ❖ its just too easy. She forgot that Dec is the holiday party month. If you fail to plan; plan to fail.

Jennifer ❖ hosting a night of food and any clear white, over 90 proof liquor, she could find. All to talk about Estate Planning. Mumbling was involved. AND, vintage Jennifer, dragged Me, David, Natalie, Laura and Beth into her orbit of fines. We were innocent bystanders.
