ROTOGRAM 10/6/21

PRE MEETING CHAT very quiet, too quiet

Meeting called to order by Prez elect, Gary Deas @ 12:10 sharp!

Invocation: Great Scott

Pledge: Chuck Sberna

GUESTS:

Melissa Fulton and Chuck Sberna. Wish I had been there to hug these guys.

GUEST SPEAKER: Lori LaBrie, Learning Support Specialist, Amer Indian Oversight Committee, Lake County Office of Education (retires after 35 years in June, 2021)
Her position is to provide input and advice.

Goals:

Review resources available

Strategize on how to combat chronic absenteeism. Grades K-8 = 33-40%!

Impact of Covid on native American school kids

Work on generational anger

New laws being enacted to:

Incorporate Native American history in all schools, at all levels.

Able to wear cultural regalia at graduation

Grant given to find out why kids are not going to school.

Lake County Strong an initiative to incorporate comprehensive history of Lake County and Native Americans in the schools.

Create more Native American Clubs in the schools.

7 recongnized tribes in Lake County working to create a map that will be in all schools.

- 10% of Lakeport Unified is native American

- # of prison beds is determined by the number of 3rd graders who cannot read.

SUNSHINE: Beth Havrilla, short and sweet. The report, not Beth.

Andy Blum, Oct 8-anniversary & Oct. 9 birthday

Melissa was fined for not dressing up to her usual past CEO standards by wearing tennis shoes. But they were tied, so not completely retired.

DETECTIVE: Pam or Faith or Lance. Nobody knows. Anxious to see who will show up next week.

Brock fined for being present online or not. Mystery.

Faith fined for being AWOL and derelict in her duties.

Marie fined for overstepping and doing too good of a job on the Lakeport event. She was also fined for having a meteor explode in her backyard.

David fined for making Natalie do the heavy lifting because he forgot his camera.

Somehow he was able to pass to Jennifer.

Wayne was fined for leaving Lake County.
