"The Crown Jewel of District 5130"

September 24, 2019

In the Bar . . .

President TomJ brought the meeting to order and welcomed members and guests.

TomCr had a thought for the day from Catherine Cook — "If you're not making mistakes, then you're not making decisions."

JoeM, still giddy over San Jose State's 31-24 win over Arkansas, had a club specific version of the Mickey Mouse Club song for us to sing.

There were no visiting Rotarians. Visitors to the club included speakers Priscilla Locke and Jena Hunt-Abraham. TomC's guest was potential member Bill Glascock. Deann Schultz and Laurie Myers were guests of JoeM. Melissa Lira was also on hand to fill in for a missing LarryL.

Happy Birthday wishes go out to TomCh and KenM-S's wife Melissa.

DebS had a wedding anniversary on the road.

100 Percent Attendance Club

Happy Dollars . . .

MarilynL went for a ride in DickW's 1913 Ford Speedster.

TomCh had Happy Dollars for passing is driver's test. (Sonoma County pedestrians have been notified.)

EmilyR had a niece visit from Ireland. Happy Euros..

TomCr reported that Andrea is home and doing better.

BrianR liked BarryC bit of wisdom at the Living Room after party. Barry said "You know you're young when you sneak out of the house to go to a party and you're getting old when you sneak out of a party to go home."

DebS had Happy Dollars for rescue dogs.

JoeM had Happy Dollars for San Jose State's triumph over Arkansas (after SJSU was paid $1.5 million to play them!)

KenM-S had Happy Dollars for the 20 tons of grapes harvested so far.

President TomJ had Happy Dollars for DennisS and JulieM volunteering to run the Interact Club at Montgomery High School.

More business . . .

RonL reminded everyone that the fundraiser is not that far away and to start shaking the trees for auction ideas.

The shade structure at the Children's museum will be going up soon.

The Hand's Up Project will be on
November 9th, so mark your calendars!
9 a.m. to 1 p.m.
