Zoomin' on a Tuesday Afternoon.

The big question at today's meeting was . . .
"Can you hear me?"

President-elect KimMcD took the meeting on-line and welcomed members and our guest, Casey Williams from Santa Rosa Sunrise.

JeffS had a saying about social distancing and swordplay.

LarryL led the assembled in a rendition of "America the Beautiful" (We sound much better in person!)

Board meeting report

The club received a thank-you from The Pony Express.

Rotary International has given each club $500 to help fund their COVID-19 efforts.

SRE has authorized $1,500 to help in the Lunch Is On Us box lunch initiative in cooperation with other local Rotary clubs.

“Lunch Is On Us”

Casey Williams from the Santa Rosa Sunrise Club talked about the tentatively titled Lunch Is On Us program that would provide box lunches for those in need while at the same time supporting local restaurants during the COVID-19 quarantine.

It has grown to be a cooperative venture among all the Santa Rosa clubs. Sebastopol, Petaluma and Cotati are also looking to join the project.

The restaurants included Sally Tomatoes, Bianchini's and Wilibee's. Other restaurants will be included each week.

INTERNATIONAL RESPONSIBILITIES OF A ROTARIAN (From rotary.org)

As an international organization, Rotary offers each member unique opportunities and responsibilities. Although each Rotarian has first responsibility to uphold the obligations of citizenship of his or her own country, membership in Rotary enables Rotarians to take a somewhat different view of international affairs. In the early 1950s a Rotary philosophy was adopted to describe how a Rotarian may think on a global basis. Here is what it said:

"A world-minded Rotarian:

- looks beyond national patriotism and considers himself as sharing responsibility for the advancement of international understanding, goodwill and peace;
- resists any tendency to act in terms of national or racial superiority;
- seeks and develops common grounds for agreement with peoples of other lands;
- defends the rule of law and order to preserve the liberty of the individual so that he may enjoy freedom of thought, speech and assembly, and freedom from persecution, aggression, want and fear;
- supports action directed toward improving standards of living for all peoples, realizing that poverty anywhere endangers prosperity everywhere;
- upholds the principles of justice for mankind;
- strives always to promote peace between nations and prepares to make personal sacrifices for that ideal;
- urges and practices a spirit of understanding of every other man's beliefs as a step toward international goodwill, recognizing that there are certain basic moral and spiritual standards which will ensure a richer, fuller life."

That is quite an assignment for any Rotarian to practice in thoughts and actions!
