There was a little bit of a mix up with our re-start of our hybrid meetings, but thanks to the perseverance of our fearless leader--and the good looks and intelligence of Mark McGowan--the meeting started at 12:45. Our next meeting will be a hybrid meeting where we will have the glitches taken out.

Onto our speaker.

Kate Witthaus, a head member of the Humboldt County sheriff's posse, gave an excellent overview of the capability and success of the posse. The Humboldt County sheriff's posse is a truly excellent organization which the Southwest Eureka club looks forward to donating to through the posse drone fund.
