Stanford Football and Rotary on November 3rd

By Rosemary Eng on Monday, October 12, 2020

Mike Eubanks will describe Stanford football recruiting in Covid-19 times

It's football season! Mike Eubanks, Stanford Cardinal's director of recruiting and football relations will be Zooming with Redwood City Rotary members November 3rd to talk about college football during the Covid-19 pandemic.

As the Cardinal's recruiting coordinator he directs the strategic planning and execution of recruiting activities, messages, materials and visits. He will describe how he guides prospective student-athletes and their families through the Stanford admission application process. He'll talk about working with faculty and staff throughout the seven schools of Stanford University to foster relationships with the football program and its student-athletes.

To leverage the brand and assets of Stanford football, Eubanks functions as the program's primary collaborator with the marketing, media relations, creative video and ticket sales groups of Stanford Athletics.

Eubanks earned his undergraduate and graduate degrees from Stanford, graduating in 1997 with a bachelor's degree in chemistry, then earning his master's in chemistry in 2000. He, his wife and daughter reside in Foster City.
