

MEETING NOTES: April 28, 2021

Call to Order: Co-President Joy rang the bell at 12. We watched the video of Skip Hoyt playing America the Beautiful while singing along. Hoky led the flag salute.

Sunshine: Hoky told us that he will attend Phil Faust's memorial service at the family's invitation. Our Ruth R. was back with a pretty necklace instead of the chunky neck brace. Richard H. has an article in the Rossmoor News.

Thought for the Day: Jennifer H. shared a bunch of clever and wise sayings.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Visiting Rotarian Lee Scherr was with us for a second time. We look forward to his eventual move here from Florida and joining us full time.

The regular club business was suspended for our Rossmoor Rotary Foundation Chair to announce the slate of candidates for Trustees. There are 5 openings. The candidates are Ruth R., Sharon L., John R., Jim O, Patrice J., and Joy A. Additional nominations can be submitted via email or snail mail to John K. Any additional nominations must be a member of the Rossmoor Rotary Club and have that person's permission for their name to be submitted. We will vote in one month.

Joy A. shared letters of thanks for our donations from the trafficked girl's rescue/education project in Viet Nam and from Meals on Wheels. The Meals program has expanded 40% this year as the need has grown substantially. Patrice J. said the last Buddy Zoom meeting with our Interact buddies will be Thursday afternoon at 4:00.
