

MEETING NOTES: April 17, 2019

John King called the meeting to order.

Guests and Visitors: John Swearington from Turlock Rotary visited. He lives in Rossmoor now.

Video: The video illustrated Rotary's effect on the global community. They invest in communities where they relate to people for health and fellowship.

Sunshine: Roger is feeling better.

Thought of the Day: Marlene told funny stories about bordellos, haircuts and scams in cars.

Happy Dollars: Patrice was happy about her niece getting married. Les Birdsall talked about dinner with Joy Alaidarous. Dick Hamlish was enthusiastic about the Clippers victory. Ted Tomblinson was grateful to be healthy.

Raffle winners were Bea and Marilee. The pot is at $273.00.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Jann spoke about the benefits of the Women's Collective Meetings.

Bea announced that they need three new Foundation Board members.

PROGRAM

Theresa Hurley, Executive Director of the Contra Costa Bar Association, spoke about the Bar. One third of their members are sixty years old or more. Sixty-five percent of all law practices are composed of a solo individual or less than three members.

The Bar Association provides many services. They provide education for all twenty disciplines of the Bar. The general public may request legal referrals, including regular, reduced fee and pro bono assistance. If they recommend a law firm, they get a percent of the fee. They work with local law students. Additionally, they have a committee that recommends lawyers to the governor for licensure.

CALENDAR

Today	Patrice Jensen – Four Way Speech
May 1	John King – San Francisco Chronicle Urban Critic