

MEETING NOTES: February 13, 2019

John King called to order.

Guests: Since this was a celebration of Valentine's Day members were encouraged to bring their significant others. Tom, Irv, Patrice and Mike introduced their mates and partners.

Video: John showed two videos from Rossmoor International. The first video covered the global services they provide. The second video offered ideas on how to achieve happiness.

Sunshine: Skip has a low blood pressure. Dave and Shel are doing well.

Happy Dollars: Patrice is looking forward to another birthday. Joy was happy about the successful Feb 5 meeting. Carrie celebrated getting a new driver's license.

Thought for the Day: Vince Lombardi (winningest coach in NFL) praised winning above all else. Even coming in 2nd is bad. Must be fully focused and have nothing else on your mind or body.

Raffle: Sue and Mike were the big winners this week.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

St. Patrick's Day Event: The March 13th meeting will be a special celebration of St. Patrick's Day with lunch at the regular meeting location at Hillside.

See's Candy sales are almost complete.

Sue presented content from her last Golden Rain Foundation Meeting. They covered the great accomplishments of the GRF. It is on Channel 28.

A District Conference in Reno is coming soon. Three districts will participate with hundreds of attendees. You can choose breakout sessions and hear major guest speakers.

PROGRAM

Les Birdsall introduced four female applicants from Los Lomas High School who are vying for the scholarship we sponsor to Camp Royal. We will choose two of these for scholarships. Four Las Lomas males will compete at the next week.

Caroline Landes participates in many activities including the National Charity League.

Maya Schiffer is a Jewish student from Romania. She is multi-lingual and participates in many activities, one of which is volleyball.

Lyda Eger is also involved in many school activities.

Clara Lee is a student from Thailand.

Each of the young ladies received a rose for Valentine's Day.

CALENDAR

Today	Les Birdsall and the Camp Royal Candidates
Next Week	Gisela Zebroski – Berlin Airlift