

MEETING NOTES: February 20, 2019

John King called the meeting to order.

Visiting Rotarians were Joe Morgan and Walker Lundy.

Video: John played an inspirational video from Rotary International regarding the charitable work they've done in countries around the world. There are 1.2 million members in thirty countries.

Sunshine: Skip is back, and Don Peterson is healthy.

Thought of the Day: Marlene gave a complicated quiz to all and we got very few correct answers.

Happy Dollars: Jim Olson celebrated another birthday and Jackie celebrated an anniversary. Dick was happy to see Walker Lundy was joining the club. Bea was pleased to be in good health. Jann mentioned the Women's Collective and yoga.

Raffle winners were Bea and George.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

St. Patrick's Day Meeting: On March 13th, we'll hold an annual joint meeting with the Alamo Rotary Club. It will be a special celebration of St. Patrick's Day with lunch at the regular meeting location at Hillside. Special entertainment and some Guinness may be on hand.

Interact Club: We are exploring the possibility of starting an Interact Club at Las Lomas High School. This is a Rotary International service club for young people ages 12 to 18. Interact clubs are sponsored by individual Rotary clubs, which provide support and guidance, but they are self-governing and self-supporting.

District Assembly: John encouraged anyone who hadn't been to a District Assembly to go on April 6th. The training and learning about Rotary are well-worth the time. It is being held in Fairfield.

Rotary 4 Way Fest: Our annual conference at the Peppermill in Reno is May 17th – 19th. There will be four districts participating in the conference, with about 1,000 attendees. Past Rotary International president and major league pitcher Dave Dravecky will be a featured speaker. Special room rates are available. It will sell out, so please register soon. More information can be found at www.rotary4-max.org.

PROGRAM

Les Birdsall introduced the male Camp Royal candidates from Las Lomas High School.

Cade Johnson is a fourth-generation resident of Walnut Creek. He is involved in Los Lomas leadership and wants to enhance those skills by pursuing studies public affairs.

Charles Kisyla is very athletic and wants to enter a math and technology career. He is interested in attending Camp Royal to enhance his leadership skills.

Andrew Kim is Korean and multi-lingual. He has no father present in his home and often is the "man of the house". He wants to help kids matriculate to college. He's also interested in impacting other kids lives. Apart from this, Andrew is a musician and concert master who enjoys academic challenges.

CALENDAR

Today	Gisela Zebroski – "The Berlin Airlift, the Candy Bomber and I"
Mar. 6	Lorna Van Ackeren – Aging in Place