

MEETING NOTES: June 12, 2019

John King called the meeting to order and read a thank you note from the Alzheimer's "Choice in Aging" program.

Rotary Video: The videos illustrated Rotary's good will in promoting peace and improving the treatment of women in many global economies. The second video also showed Rotary's fight against disease among women and orphans in Uganda. They have helped 1.2 million people there and protected them from HIV by providing access to medical care for five hundred orphans.

Sunshine: Marlene is dealing with arthritic pain. Others are stable.

Thought of the Day: Earl Abbe left us with this message: "The world is not just ours but belongs to the universe."

Happy Dollars: Jim Olson celebrated his grandchildren. Chuck Lamb gave in hopes that the Warriors would win the playoff series. Bob Sutherland supported Chuck's vision of a Warriors win. Patrice was happy to discover the "Funny in Farsi" book.

Raffle: Patrice and Jann each won a bottle of wine. There is $505 in the pot.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Monument Crisis Center: We recognized the Monument Crisis Center for providing backpacks for at-risk students.

Women's Collective: Jann announced that the Women's Collective continues to meet at Creekside. She encouraged new members into the alliance by holding small social events including having family get together. She is now head of new membership.

4th of July BBQ: We need more volunteers!
