

MEETING NOTES: May 1, 2019

John King called the meeting to order.

Guests and Visitors: No visiting Rotarians but a former Rotarian named Peterson who now lives in Rossmoor.

Video: This week's video stressed our influence on economics, disease prevention and lasting change in communities around the globe. We are people of action and enhance lines of sustainability, create radical change and make the world a better place. Be an inspiration and make a difference.

Sunshine: Sunshine report was generally positive with Dorman recovering from hip replacement.

Thought of the Day: Marlene Miller told funny stories about email viruses, kids making decisions on who to marry, kissing and age of first kiss and sanity in retirement.

Happy Dollars: Olson for Warrior victory, King for Shark victory and Juse for honoring Pete Seger and his music.

Raffle Two individuals won bottles of wine, pot is getting big!

ANNOUNCEMENTS

President John received a thank you note from a former Camp Royal attendee who appreciated his experience in the past.

PROGRAM

The speaker today was John King from the San Francisco Chronicle where he is the Editor of Urban Affairs. He gave a very positive view of the rapid growth of our city in terms of construction which is continuing to make us the center of the Bay Area. He explained that we are moving with many to help avoid the potential of rising ocean levels and tides. We are also working closely with development in Treasure Island. The city is getting too expensive as a side light, also, the Transbay Terminal is booming in spite of its problems and is very popular. King was also very positive about Stern Grove. He did not deal with the homeless problem and its ramifications.
