

- Voter suppression movement

MEETING NOTES: April 21, 2021

Sunshine: Ruth Reeves is back and attended her first meeting today.

Thought for the Day: Patrice Jensen presented the thought for the day.

Happy Dollars: Ruth R is happy to be back. David B. is very happy for Ruth and Tillie, and his own upcoming birthday. Patrice J. is very happy for Interactors and for her remodeled family room.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

- Board of Trustees' Nominating Committee will announce at next week's club meeting the names of Board candidates, and explain to attendees how the voting process works. Voting will be conducted at the June 9th club meeting.
- April 17th's food bank collection was very successful, including cash donations.
- Attendees were reminded of the Lokanta Mediterranean Grill dinner on Saturday, May 8th and to place their online order no later than May 3, 5 PM.
- Patrice Jensen announced that Rossmoor Rotary Interact buddies are invited to the Interact awards ceremony this Friday.

CALENDAR

April 28	Wayne Steffen – Hosting a murder mystery and dinner online
May 5	Dan McGrath – USAID in Africa
May 8	Fundraiser dinner from Lokanta Grill

PROGRAM

Joe Garofoli, Senior Political Writer for the SF Chronicle, provided his very informative viewpoints on California and National Political Issues. He discussed the following topics:

- Decertifying police officers who continue to cause problems
- Chance of winning or losing the Gavin Newsom recall
- What is the biggest threat to California's liberal politics?
- Will the filibuster rule be eliminated?
- Expanding the Supreme Court