

MEETING NOTES: July 28, 2021

Call to Order: President Bill rang the bell. Tom G. led the flag salute. We had a video of an amazing 7-year-old Chinese girl singing the Star-Spangled Banner. She was opening a soccer game in Los Angeles.

Sunshine: None noted

Thought for the Day: Merilee H. shared proverbs from around the world for our Thought of the Day.

Happy Dollars: Patrice J., she and husband Tom are going to Oregon to spend the weekend with her daughter, fairly new son-in-law, and his family. Rafting is on the agenda.

John K. in honor of both his wife Tammara and daughter Elli's upcoming birthdays.

Chuck L. praised the Olympian gymnast, Simone Byles. She displayed enormous courage in her acknowledging she's struggling with mental issues. Hope this inspires others to acknowledge their issues too.

Wolf W. told us a story about the surprise birth of twins.

David B. for the release from hospital of his Covid struck unvaccinated sister-in-law.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

President Bill inducted two new members into our club. Their sponsor is Joy A who put their shiny new pins on them. We wholeheartedly welcome Claire Castell and Jo Deanhardt. Say hello and get to know these very interesting and nice ladies.

Merilee as our new Membership Chairperson handed out Free Lunch cards for us to use for prospective members. A prospect may have 2 free lunches as they get to know us. This is a really good way for us to grow our membership. When people find out how nice we are, how much good we do, what good food we have, and generally interesting speakers they most often want to come back.

Raffle: the pot is up to $80 dollars. Both Hogey H. and John K. won bottles of wine.

Jim presented an overview of our support for the Jaha Golf Tournament to support Parkinson's network. This will be held at Rossmoor on 10/11/2021. Looking for players and sponsors.

PROGRAM

There was a mix-up with our speaker who was unable to ZOOM in. Past President Steve had video which we watched. It was a very motivational speech given By Past Rotary International President Rick King. His speech was titled "Uncommon Leadership". He stressed three attributes that are essential. They are conviction, Passion, and commitment.
