Chico State Athletics

By Sean Isom on Thursday, October 21, 2021

President Paul opened the meeting at Canyon Oaks inviting Carol Linscheid who (go Braves) shared multiple baseball quotes (go Braves) including some from Tommy Lasorda and Yogi Berra. This was followed by leading us in the pledge...Play Ball!

Paul shared that while his bell has been stolen, his missing gavel is due to his own mistake...1 bell self-induced.

Phil Wilke introduced our sole guest: Anita Barker from CSUC who is our speaker today.

Announcements & Comments

NOTE: We are moving to to Mom's Restaurant starting in November!

- Carl O. shared that he has books for Little Libraries in his car today and in the future.
- Susie Sorenson stated she can't find her library which prompted a bunch of comments. See Nancy on where you may be able to find your library.
- Randy K shared that this weekend's project "Make a Difference" at Neal Dow Elementary is being impacted by rain. There will be 80 yards of material delivered tomorrow (Friday) and your help spreading this material on Saturday is needed. Bring rakes(landscaping if you have them) and shovels. Emails to follow.
- Aaron S. stated that the Halloween Party will be at Jason Smith's next Thursday. It's a pot luck with signup sheets being sent around. The event is rain or shine...check your inbox for more details...we are Dark Next Week!

- Susie S announced that next week's lunch team is Jason S, Deb L. and Pat P. Last weeks group (Heidi, John and Aaron) did meet but I missed what they ate???
- Teresa F announced that next week will have a fundraiser meeting...NV Ag Services Monday at 5:30pm...Fireball will be provided by Teresa!
- Pat Pilsbury directed our attention to Rich Powell who was discharged from Enloe Hospital after a 3 day stay. Typical of Rich...he was subtle on how he is doing other than 'feeling fine'.
- Susie S. couldn't let the opportunity pass...she beat Mark Stuenkel in fantasy football this week...
- Due to the rain, not photo opportunity will be available for little free libraries.

Recognitions

- Sean Isom shared that he spent multiple short weeks (3 days) working and some long weekends enjoying time in Puerto Vallarta and Missoula MT. He brought Paul back some socks and a scantron to remind Paul of college...1 bell
- Jason Smith shared how he bought Feather River Heating and Air of Oroville. He also shared how things don't always turn out as they initially appear...Big Ben!
- Dan Bay said that he spent a few weeks retiring and no days working...in Montague where he bagged a 3x3 buck in a cow pasture followed by his son killing a cow in Utah (elk cow that is)...1 Big Ben.
- Tanya Layne shared that she met Josie Cochrain, who is looking for a 'young' person to work at Bridalveil Falls in Yosemite from July to September. It is helping an engineering firm with revamping the water system. Know anyone who may be interested, contact Tanya.
- Aaron Souza was 'working' in Tahoe helping millionaires with pictures. He too was looking for socks for Paul. While he found Cold Bears on Ice for Paul, he also found Birthday Suit socks for Susie Sorenson...1 bell.
- Heidi Houlihan shared that Chico Eye Center has broken ground on a new building accross from DeGarmo Park. This was followed by rain, promptly halting construction...1 bell.
- Howard Slater then offered to pay Heidi's recognition, prompting others to question "On Time, On Budget", which his response included some provisions of cost+...

Program

Phil Wilke introduced Anita Barker from CSUC. She started by sharing she is a Rotarian from the noon club, and has been CSUC's Athletic Director for the last 13 years.

She continued with Chico has sports in the fall (X-country, Soccer, Volleyball), winter (Basketball), and spring(Baseball, Softball, Golf and Track & Field).

The sports are supported 87% by student fees and the students come first with an average GPA of 3.01 and 65% of students over a 3.0.

She and Deb L (Provost of CSUC) showed mutual respect for the success of the athletic's program and school's support of her programs.

In Closing
