Rotary Club of Livermore Meeting report for July 24th2018

Jay Davis opened the meeting twice. The first time he was just kidding.

James Goodhart led the Pledge of allegiance.

Pat McMenamain gave us a excellent ♦thought for the day♦

Our ♦Meeting front Line♦ was introduced

There were no visiting Rotarians this time

Catherine Riehl, Loretta Kaskey, Pam Croce Goode and Steve Shirley were guests today, along with John Shirley♦s caregiver. Loretta has applied for membership and should be a member soon.

Glen Kubiak presented the treasury report. He greatly thanks Kathy Coyle for her advise and support while putting this together. In addition, he presented a new format for reporting the finances. It is called the ♦Bullish♦ report. Our esteemed president had a lot to do with this format and if you like long horns you will love it.

Bank balances are $61K with $25K in reserves

Income for 2018/19 were$118K from operations and $200K from fund raising

Expenses for operations were $124K and $108K for funding/services

Nile Runge needs someone to take over the video recording for Aug./Sept. time frame. He will train whoever signs up and it looks to be an easy assignment.

Joel Swanson sent around sign up sheets for 2 projects happening in Aug. Please contact him should you wish to help out. One project is building outdoor tables for Sunflower Hill on August 17. The other is our annual Marilyn Ave. School BBQ and/or Ice Cream social and the date is TBD.

The Mystery Golf Day will be held July 30th . Contact Mike Thompson if you are interested.

Our Foreign Exchange student will arrive Aug. 13 and Evonne is considering a welcoming committee at the airport.

Greg Irwin received his Blue badge today and did so in record time.

Our guest speaker, Steve Nimmo, presented on his foundation called Z-cares. He started the foundation soon after recently losing his son to suicide. The theme of the presentation was ♦Standing Up To Anxiety♦. His presentation was quite emotional in the beginning and the presentation. The foundation is a VERY worthwhile endeavor, we should all support.

Nest week we will be presented a talk on Organ Tissue Donation.
