Spur Report November 10, 2021

A well run and operated Hybrid meeting, including the pre meeting discussion focussed on same. Watching on Zoom worked well for me. The best yet! Congratulations, all involved.

President Ken opened the meeting with his usual punctuality.

The Pledge was led by Alan Frank.

The Songsters .

Stu, Michael and Tim gave us a great rendition of America the Beautiful. Is any club as lucky as ours is in having such talented musicians? Have checked out many in various parts of the world, and haven't encountered one yet!

Thought of the Day.

Tim Barry followed on by telling us about his brother's and his father's service in World War II and Vietnam, and how his whole family would sing together. He then sang their favorite "It's a Grand Old Flag".

Visiting Rotarians and Guests

Sonya introduced her guest, Kathleen Tabet.

Rotary - Club and Foundation Grants

Mary Anne Rozsa reminded us that applications for Club Grants are due by December 8. Although most grants recently have been to school projects and needs, other good causes are also considered. A total of $1600 was distributed this last year.

Last year, Foundation Grants totaled $81, 000. All those who applied got a share.

Polio Plus

Beth Wilson gave a fascinating and inspiring talk about her Rotary trip to India with her cousin in 2016 to take part in Polio vaccination in villages. Her talk was accompanied by a video, which gave a clear picture of the sorts of conditions that are met by volunteers in the program. This was part of a campaign to vaccinate the children in 2 1/2 million villages. Thank you, Beth!

Alan Frank promoted a unique opportunity to see local artists and their work, not in a gallery, but in their own homes and workshops. Alan's wife Peggy is a very talented artist, and their home also will be open, Saturday/Sunday Nov. 13/14, 10-5 pm, 748 Wimbledon, Livermore.

President Ken announced that the Dublin club is collecting and distributing socks and gloves for the homeless. For info. contact Ken. (see flyer at end of report)

Next week's Meeting: President Elect Sblend will introduce speaker Adam Vandewater, Director of Innovation and Economic Development in Livermore.

Topic: Livermore's Cultural Arts Vision

The Program: Paul McCandless began the Program with a short history of Veteran's Day, and followed with an introduction to two vets now studying at Las Positas College - Steven and Kenia, Army and Navy. They described their lives in the service, and how, once deployed, they have benefitted from the Veterans First program.

President Ken, left with a few spare minutes, made a vain attempt to collect fine or two. Too much resistance - and too little killer instinct! Thanks, Ken!

And so the meeting ended.
