The Speaker for July 10th: Mike Farrell

Mike Farrell

Human Rights Advocate talks about why the death penalty harms victims' families, puts innocent lives at risk, and wastes public resources that could be put to better use.

Mike Farrell, an actor/producer/director, a human rights activist and life-long opponent of the death penalty, has spoken to and debated human rights issues and the death penalty for years.

Since the late 1960's, when he was visiting California prisons with the Manhattan Project, a rehabilitation program, he has been an advocate of penal reform and prisoner's rights.

Next Big Project Committee Selected

The Next Big Project Committee, chosen by Gary Shara, Fred Begun, Karyn Sinunu-Towery and Howard Loomis, has been announced. They are:

- Vince Sunzeri – Committee Chair and past Community Grant Chair
- Jay Ross – past Club President
- Matt Bell – past Foundation President
- Barbara Bremner – Executive Director
- Mary Curtis, James Eller and David Ginsborg – Club members for more than 15 years
- Patrick Frawley, Jim Gardner and Janikke Klem – Club members for 5 – 15 years
- Terri Chapman, Robin Doran, Ginger Sotelo, James Towery and James Williams – Club Members for less than 5 years.

This committee of 15 members will conduct a community needs assessment and identify a large project that solves a critical need, has long-term impact, high visibility, provides inspiration and excitement, creates a sense of pride, and serves to motivate and attract new Club members. This

New Member Michael Oliver

Michael is a 4th generation Santa Clara County resident. He is a graduate of Santa Clara University Law School and has practiced law for the last 30 years in the area of Workers Compensation.

He and his family have invested in residential and commercial real estate in San Jose and Saratoga for over 100 years. Michael bought his first property when he was in high school and his last property last year. He is very much a bull when it comes to the future of the Santa Clara Valley community.

Michael and his wife are active members of Saint Mary's Catholic Church and have been residents of Saratoga for the last 26 years. They have one Daughter, Caroline, who is presently a rising Senior at Barnard College in New York City.

Michael is a big fan of 40's and 50's Film Noir and would love to trade stories about that area of cinema.

Youth Protection Bit-O-Info
