Bulletin for Sept. 9, 2019

September 9 meeting

Lori Korock, the owner of Aligned Fitness and Pilates, will talk about health and fitness. Chris Phelps has arranged for Lori's talk.

Upcoming speakers & meetings:

September 16 ♦ Member Lisa Craig will speak on "Why This Place Matters: Historic preservation and downtown revitalization." ♦ She has a private consulting business in this arena and was recently appointed executive director of the Lodi Historical Society.

September 23 & 30 ♦ No meetings; these are the 4th and 5th Mondays of the month.

October 7 ♦ Our speaker will be Roger Coover, the new executive director at the Lodi Boys and Girls Club. Some will also recall he is the retired publisher of the Record newspaper in Stockton. He'll speak about the club's services and future. His appearance was arranged by Marty Weybret.

November 4 ♦ School Resource Officers Jim Landis and Brandon Haro will tell us about their gang reduction program which we support with community service contributions. Craig Norton is our liaison to the GREAT gang reduction program and arranged for Officers Landis and Haro to speak.

As of today, Oct. 14, 21, Nov. 11 and onward are open for speakers. If you have ideas for speakers, email one of the three speaker chairmen: Marty Weybret ♦ mfweybret@sbcglobal.net ♦ is handling programs for the July-October. Chris Olsen ♦ christopher.j.olsen@ampf.com ♦ is handling November to February. Jack Olson ♦ JackOlson313@yahoo.com ♦ is handling March to June.
