Higher Education in the Time of COVID

By Vinton Thengvall on Tuesday, July 28, 2020

Vice Chancellor Ed Klotzbier and Chief Resilience Officer Andy Boyd will update Merced Rotarians on UC Merced's recently completed 2020 Project and current plans for the Fall 2020 semester including students coming to the community, course delivery, academic research, events and activities. Given the everchanging nature of the pandemic and California's aggressive approach to slowing the spread of the virus, UC Merced is working hard to maintain the health and well being of our students, faculty, staff and the community we call home through a nimble and innovative approach to delivering on its mission of teaching, research and public service.
