NSR 21-22 President

1500 miles of Delta!

Functional parking

Where's your ski boat?

Wayne, directing traffic

08/24/21

Tod Anton leading and inspiring.

Arriving at 11:45, I was greeted by our old traffic cop, Wayne Hose. Breezing through the gate I had a chance to unwind and look at the fantastic Delta Views. As I had mentioned last week, we missed our female Rotarians, and this week we were in full force. We had 27 members at the meeting! We lined up at the buffet for our tour of the world via our cuisine, and today it was Italy!! Chicken, Tortellini, Ravioli, Italian salad, with monster pieces of focaccia bread. Lemonade and Ice tea to drink.

Full house at NSR!!!!

President Evan Stone rang the bell at 12:30pm.

Sylvester Agular visiting RoRo.

Past President Tod Anton lead the pledge, 4 way test and had the thought for the day. He mentioned that through the ages we've had the Capulets and the Montagues, Hatfields and McCoys and then referred to a quote PDG Jim Ellis would use to his students: Eleanor Roosevelt said, He who harbors resentments against others, keeps his own wounds green. So think about that! Life's too short.

We had guests in the crowd. Justin Redman brought Alexia Marguida who he works with at FM Bank. Richard Carr introduced for the second time Ryan Billigmeir who is public relations manager at Citizen's Bank.

Visiting us was Rotarian Sylvester Agular from the Modesto Sunrise Club. You can make up here anytime!!!

Sunshine Bucks:

Evan Stone started with honoring his Father. Today would have been his 84th birthday, he's been gone for 28 years. Blessings Evan, evidently he still did a great job with you!

Ode to my Dad, very nice.

Old Jim, our pets are so dear.

Karen Rea working on her bucket list went zip lining, (good thing she knows CPR), and swimming in Lake Placid! She looked up and Eddie the Eagle flew over her! Nice.

Jim Dugoni, still riding the fact that he's a grandpa, sadly informed us of the family pet, Sasha has passed. So He and Lisa went to the rescue shelter and found a miniature Pincher to hang out with their Miniature dachshund. Nice!

Not Karen swimming in Lake Placid!

Stocktoncon's Mike Millerick

And they booked the Spanos Center. Mike said he got lucky and booked stars and celebrities for the show. So the day of the show, expecting 500 people, sees that the line goes on forever. 4000 people showed up for the original show! First thing Andy said was, we need a bigger place. In 2013 they moved to the Stockton Events Center. They got 7000 at the door. They expanded to a two day event and got 13-15000 people. In 2019 they raised over 200K for Charity. They now incorporate Wrestlers, naturally. Also they have four events a year. This year will be their 10th Anniversary.

Mike donated 2 tix to the event and posed a question that Andy Chesley answered and won! Lucky guy!

Mike Millerick and Evan giving away tix!

Wayne Hose then reminded us of our tradition of when you travel, you bring a gift to our President. He brought from France a beret for Evan. Evan modeled it for us and was very French.

All in all, an exhausting meeting, because the energy was incredible! President Evan rang the bell at 1:12pm.

Pepe Le Evan, Haaaa Haaaa Haaaa!
