Thank you Pat Orr for responding to our Newsletter

I moved to Apple Valley from Rancho Cucamonga in August 1989 because we were opening new Little Caesars stores in the high desert and I needed to be here, not 45 minutes away. We started by joining Church of the Valley and through folks there and a friend my daughter made at grade school we became friends with Howard and Harriet Beck. Howard invited me to attend a Rotary lunch at the Apple Valley Country Club a month or so into our friendship.

I wanted to meet the business leaders of our community and at the time, Rotary was the place to do that. Developers, Realtors, physicians a dentist or two, accountants and a few lawyers were the mainstays of the club. Many had been there since the Club was Chartered. Of course, I was asked right away to become a member. There was a highly active membership committee then. I would estimate we had 120 members with 80 regularly attending the luncheon.

My first event was Butch Fahrenstock's Demotion Party. I had been voluntold it would be a good thing for a new member to do. Plus, I had the requisite costume for the skit. An entire western saloon, with hitching post was erected in George Newton's back yard where a few of us, led by Cliff Earp and fortified by several adult beverages put on a show about the Gunfighting Preacher. I do not remember much of it, but everyone enjoyed it. I met and formed a lasting friendship with Newton, Earp, Cliff Jessen and quite a few members of that era.

There have been quite a few Demotion Parties, Volunteer programs, foreign trips and such to remember, but I cannot forget the lasting impression or friendships made during that first Demotion Party. The comradery and good works have kept me coming back. The physical separation of 2020 has been a tough blow to all service organizations, but it is the feeling we get from being with good people doing good things that ensures Rotary will never fade away.
