GUESTS AND VISITING ROTARIANS

Rajiv Sagar visited from the Rotary Club of Delhi South East, India. Curtis Flannigan from Union Bank, Erica Frausto from the Pomona Chamber of Commerce, Monique Manzanares from Social Vocational Services, and Osvaldo Muñoz from OPARC joined President Victor Caceres.

AROUND THE CLUB

Rotarian Rajiv Sagar from India is currently staying at the Sheraton to send his daughter off to Scripps College in Claremont. He noticed our Rotary plaque and decided to join the meeting. He gifted us a hanging pennant from the Rotary Club of Delhi South East, India and will bring home one from our club (see photo above). His club has 77 members and is part of District 3011, which is made up of 126 clubs with about 5,000 members total. His club was heavily engaged in the effort to end Polio. India was declared Polio free in 2014.

PRESIDENT'S MOMENT

I'm inspired by what our Pomona Rotary Club is doing in our community.

PROGRAM - Nena Hernandez - LA County Fair

The LA County Fair will start next Friday, September 1st at the Fairplex in Pomona. The Fairplex houses around 500 events annually ranging from tradeshow to quinceañeras. It operates many businesses across categories a varied as sport competitions, art, agriculture, education, and technology. Examples for such businesses include the Sheraton and Conference Center, various restaurants, The Learning Center, and an equipment rental company. It is a 501(c)5 community benefit organization that donated around $5.5 million back to the community in 2016 via various programs and hosts frequent community events and always welcomes volunteers and school field trips to The Farm. The LA County Fair will continue this tradition of community service with a food drive, a school supply drive, Fair Kids field trips, a blood drive, marching band camp, and support for the American Red Cross. The Fair will offer many attractions like the Millard Sheets Art Center, the Magical World of Dragons, Wizards, and Beasts exhibit, The Igloo, the Wilderness Ridge, The Farm, the Big Red Barn, Jurassic Planet, the Garden Railroad, and The Taylor Swift Experience presented by the GRAMMY Museum. There will be 14 concerts with artists including Trace Adkins, Queen Latifah, and Chicago.

The Fair will be kicked off with the Alice in Wonderland themed Premiere Party on Thursday, August 31st at 6pm at the Flower and Garden Pavilion. The first day of the Fair is Pomona Day with a parade, marching band competition and the Community Hero award. The Fair concludes on September 21st with the Fairplex's largest fundraiser of the year: The 26th Annual CDC Auction & Dinner to support the Child Development Center.
