Birthdays/Anniversaries:

Meg Rothi- July 28th- Happy Birthday
Jay & Gail Lieberman- Anniversary July 31st

Happy Bucks:

Mark Schmidt-is happy Jordan's friends who went 4 wheeling at Big Bear were not seriously injured when their vehicle went on a section of trail that collapsed, sending the vehicle tumbling down and landing on its side- the driver suffered some cuts and scratches and the passenger needed several staples to close a wound.
John Valentine- discovered a hive of bees in his sprinkler cover- time to call Chad Zimmerman who took the honey comb and promised to come back for the hive.
- He also appreciates Don Ware who helped his daughter sell her home.
Elliott & Julie Brender- are going to London for 2 weeks.
Bill Campbell- also had some bee issues and called Chad to remove a hive at his neighbors home.
Don Ware-is hosting 3 young boys from South Korea who are here to explore our culture- they attended an Angel's game and went to Knott's Berry Farm-

- He was also sad to announce the closure of Yang Ming Restaurant

Teri Elmendorf- noted that Melissa Glasgow, who was a contestant in one of our singing contests, is appearing in A Chorus Line in an Off-Off Broadway production in New York.

Bill Underwood- applauded Mark Schmidt who as well as being our President-elect is on the Rancho Santiago College & Youth Center of Orange Boards.

Pam Dunn- saw Cool & The Gang at the Pacific Amphitheater last night and got to eat some of the friend concoctions at the OC Fair.

- She also noted that Aubrey, who was one of the owners of the Coffee Grove has passed away.

Renee Bianco

Holistic Healing via Emotional Release

Renee is an Emotion Code and Body Code Practitioner. She believes that most of the physical pain we experience is due to trapped negative energy that once released allows the body heal itself. This is based on the writings of Dr. Bradley Nelson, a retired chiropractor who developed and taught the technique to others. She has developed the ability to perceive the particular emotional tangles that needs to be released through muscle testing.
