Hybrid Meeting Offered - Dial In Details Will Be Sent - Dial In @ 12:15pm
12:30 - 1:30 p.m. - Program

On January 1, 2022, Wally Hebeish was appointed as the 27th Police Chief for the City of Long Beach. He oversees the second largest municipal police agency in Los Angeles County, which provides law enforcement services to the seventh-largest city in California, as well as contracted services to the Port of Long Beach, Long Beach Airport, Long Beach Transit, and Long Beach City College. Chief Hebeish oversees a staff of over 800 sworn officers and approximately 1,200 personnel.

Chief Hebeish's career in law enforcement spans over 27 years, beginning in 1994 with the Orange County Sheriff's Department before transferring to the Long Beach Police Department in 1995. He has helped lead and inspire the department through many challenges and has been instrumental in the implementation of programs to address crime, guide organizational growth, improve employee wellness, and increase public trust surrounding equity and constitutional policing. He is committed to policing principles rooted in customer service and strengthening relationships within our diverse community.

Chief Hebeish has promoted through every rank within the Long Beach Police Department, including serving as Deputy Chief of the Support Bureau, Deputy Chief of the Patrol Bureau, and Assistant Chief of Police for over two years. He has worked a variety of assignments throughout his career and has extensive experience in the areas of Criminal Intelligence, Investigations, Patrol, and Internal Affairs.

He is a member of the Major Cities Chiefs Association, the Police Executive Research Forum, and the Los Angeles County Police Chiefs Association. Chief Hebeish is a graduate of the MCCA Police Executive Leadership Institute (PELI) and has attended the Harvard University Public Safety Leadership Summit.

Chief Hebeish holds a Bachelor's degree in Criminal Justice from Long Beach State University and a Master's degree in Communication from Southern New Hampshire University.

President 105's Post #32

By Dennis C. Smith

Thirty down and seventeen to go. We have gone back in history. We have gone to space. We have gone to Catalina. We have gone into non-profits. We have gone to Japan and Korea escorted by a decorated Marine. We have gone into the human heart.

All thanks to our wonderful Vice-Presidents, Dorian Bolick, Robyn Gordon-Peterson, Dan Lipton, and Nel Varenas. These four individuals have worked very hard to enlist a broad range of speakers covering everything from graveyards to cryptocurrency and education to red carpets. Their mission seems simple, to provide entertaining speakers with interesting topics. In reality, the challenge is not only to find speakers with interesting topics and would also be available to be in Long Beach on the designated Wednesday.

Our outstanding Veeps team has exhibited fantastic teamwork. Meeting monthly, they exchange ideas for topics, potential speakers, identify dates needing speakers, and speakers who have flexibility in their schedule should there be a need to accommodate another speaker's availability.

With seventeen meetings to go, the Veeps already have lined up Long Beach's new Chief of Police, an Olympian, speakers from local business, artificial intelligence, local sport athletes, and other speakers on interesting topics.

Throughout the year, people have approached me after meetings to tell me how good they thought the speakers were. This is achievable because of the hardworking, collaboration, and diligent work by Dorian, Robyn, Dan, and Nel.

Let them know how much you appreciate their efforts to bring quality programming to us every week
