President 105's Post #3

By Dennis C. Smith

Florist, jeweler, interior designer, real estate professionals, home health care, publisher, were just a few of the businesses represented at the Business Breakfast Roundtable organized and hosted by Rayne Sherman and Lisa Hain on Thursday morning. These meetings are a great gathering of Long Beach Rotarians who discuss issues and topics that can impact businesses, help create more business, or make businesses more efficient.

As importantly, perhaps more so, these gatherings are an opportunity for Rotarians learn more about their fellow Rotarians and their businesses. As we get to know others better, we are more likely to work with them in business and refer them to our own family, friends, and clients.

Did You Know... Long Beach Day Nursery and the RCLB

In 1912, Florence Bixby along with other dedicated women recognized a deep need for child care in the area and established the Long Beach Day Nursery. At that time, Long Beach was a small seaside resort in pre-oil boom days, and pre-schools were rare. One of the earliest supporters of the Day Nursery was J.J. Mottell, who in 1917 became the founding president of the Rotary Club of Long Beach. He rallied Rotarians to support the Long Beach Day Nursery as the Club's first community service project.

Mottell recognized the importance of providing care for children whose mothers had to work or those with illness or tragedy in the family. He and his fellow Rotarians underwrote the Day Nursery's operation for three years. Soon after, they raised over $20,000 to purchase land at 16th and Chestnut where the Nursery still operates.
