Reimagining Police Training for the 21st Century

Randy Shrewsberry, Executive Director
Institute for Criminal Justice Training Reform

12:00pm - Lunch

12:30 - 1:30pm - Program

Even if on the Meal Plan, please RSVP in advance!

Due to recent health and safety changes for indoor meetings:
Masks are required for everyone, whenever you are not at your table, eating.

Randy Shrewsberry is a former police officer, having served in Ohio, South Carolina, and Indiana for more than a decade. Starting his career in criminal justice as a police dispatcher, he's held a variety of roles throughout his law enforcement career such as patrol, patrol supervision, training, investigations, crime prevention, inter-agency intelligence, warrants, community corrections, court services, and was contracted by the United States Marshal's Office. He's testified hundreds of times, including admission as an expert in several areas. Randy was named Police Officer of the Year in 1995 by Rotary in South Carolina.

After nearly 15 years in public service, Mr. Shrewsberry worked in the private sector as a Certified Fire and Explosion Investigator, Automobile Crash Reconstruction Investigator, Crash Data Recorder Analyst and most recently, as the Director of Forensic Services investigating both criminal and civil matters.

In 2017, Randy founded the Institute for Criminal Justice Training Reform, the nation's only nonprofit advocacy organization that examines police training and education to promote sensible criminal justice reform. As the Institute's Executive Director, Randy has spoken publicly hundreds of times regarding police training - including with media organizations such as the New York Times, The Washington Post, MSNBC, USA Today and more.

President 105's Post #7

By Dennis C. Smith

What do you want to do? How can you expand your Rotary experience?

As mentioned in prior RotaryGrams, Rotary is more than going to meetings on Wednesdays, it is about being involved to build and sustain our club and organization, and helping our community. Getting involved is very easy, just a few clicks and you are engaged.

On the bottom of this, and every RotaryGram, are our Club's Board of Directors. If you click on the name of any director, an email template will pop up and you can send an email.

Why might you do this? Perhaps you want to become involved with one of the many opportunities available to you in International Service, Freda will be happy to find where you can pitch in. Want to help recruit and work with new members? Lisa Hain, like all Membership Service Directors past and future, can use your assistance.

Is Community Service your passion? If so, click on Tina's name, she has some great ideas and can use your assistance. Christopher Yco would appreciate assistance with Rotaract, Youth Service, emailing him is a click away. As we heard on Wednesday, Henry is very active with mentors for students, as well as other activities in Career Service, click and ask where you can be of service.
