President Message

The Rotary Club of Temecula was well represented at the Ride for Polio this weekend. Terry Whittington and Nan, Craig and Kathy Davis, Robert and I and our friend Ross Jackson helped District Governor Barry Valdez raise over $2500 for polio eradication.

Thursday's Fireside Chat was the first time this year that it was cool enough to actually start the fire! Thanks to those that came out to enjoy the evening.

We will be meeting in person this Wednesday at Rotary Park!! Please bring your chair, brown bag lunch and shade. We will have the zoom open for those that want to join via zoom.

Temecula Rotary Golf Tournament - WE NEED GOLFERS! Friday, October 30, 2020

The Golf Club at Rancho California

Our Dream Team Golf Committee has put together an amazing golf tournament that will be featuring the following:

Two opportunities to win a car in hole in one contest from DCH or Paradise Chevrolet!
Oak Grove Culinary Creations tasty treats on hole #7.

The Senior Committee will be serving Jello Shots.

Karen La Pointe from La Pointe Wealth Advisors will be on Hole #4 with her famous candy bar!

It's a birthday celebration on Hole #5 honoring Trey Adams' 18th birthday hosted by Kim and Aaron Adams.

And so much more!! Food, Fun and Fundraising! We need each member to help us fill one foursome. If each one of us does this we will have a full field!!

Foursomes can be registered on this link

<https://rotarycluboftemecula.ejoinme.org/registration>. Share with friends, family and associates. If you are interested in volunteering on the day of the event please contact Karl Kruger at kdkruger@gmail.com.

Hindsight is 20-21

This week we will be featuring Past President Don Tucker who served our club from 2007-2008.

We look forward to hearing Past President Don Tucker's favorite memories from his year. It was definitely a Rotary Gone Wild Year!!!
