COROTATOR

Notes from the Scribe

Because of prior commitments this Corotator will be Ed Lohlein-ish, i.e., SHORT! President Tami asked Mary Griffin, hot off her 50th wedding anniversary, to offer the invocation. The Scribe introduced the visiting Rotarians, and away we went.

Please Note: Contrary to today's announcement, next Weds. we WILL meet at Coronado Cays Yacht Club!! We'll send you a reminder next week.

Rotary Notes of Interest & Announcements

1. The End Polio Now Wine Tasting is ON! And, Sue Maack and Pat Flynn said 80 tickets have already been sold, so don't be left out. Tickets are on sale! Sherry Calhoun is helping out with the silent auction items and we need those of you with unique gifts to step up! It's Friday, September 27 at Jim Kaufman's home. Don't forget that a $250 donation gets you Paul Harris Fellowship credit.
2. Since our last meeting we had our August Social Hour at Suzanne Popp's. Rob Taylor and Robin MacCartee went to the District 5340 Membership Seminar. We do pretty well at this, but let's keep it up! Sue Ryan reported that the Board of Directors approved $2500 for up to five "hands-on" Club Service Projects. The forms are on the website under "documents." Or see Sue for more details.
3. People of Action! Howard Somers and his wife were interviewed on CNN regarding their new imitative, "Network of Support."
4. Rotary Minute! Karen Strabala reviewed Youth Services and the importance of passing Rotary Youth Protection if you're working with youngsters. Emma Sandke got to come and tell us about her first year at Northeastern University as our Rotary Scholarship recipient. We also met our inboard, long-term exchange student Diana from Belgium.
5. Who Was I? Ken MacLeod was the 77th president of the Rotary Club of Coronado, but he started at La Mesa Sunrise before wising up. His greatest accomplishment of his Rotary term (2002-2003) was the removal of the Bridge tolls!
6. Are you ready for some football? Cam Cameron and Jim Laslavic will be the guest speakers at the next Alt Meeting on September 10. Watch for your emails as this will "sell out," and there is limited seating.

Just to get you in the mood for a little wine tasting fun!

Pres. Tami presents our speaker, Walter Lam, with bamboo cutlery cuz this club is GREEN!

This club loves to socialize! Especially on a warm summer evening, such as last evening at the lovely home of Dr. Suzanne Popp—thanks, Suzanne!

Fines and Recognitions

1. Sherry Richter brought her grandson to Rotary and also happen to mention she's going to have another grandson this January. $50.
2. Having a daughter who played Division I Lacrosse and not knowing the difference between a yellow and red card cost Sue Maack $50.

Family of Rotary

We hope Dave Johnson's recovery is moving along smartly.

Program

Mariah Gillespie introduced fellow Rotarian Walter Lam (Club 33) who is director of the Alliance for African Assistance. They are a refugee resettlement organization who have resettled 8,000 African refugees in San Diego County in the last ten years. There are 70,000,000 refugees world-wide and they're doing what they can to help. As an example, Walter brought a refugee from Afghanistan who has been here for just three weeks and already has a job and is rebuilding her life.
