COROTATOR

Notes from the Substitute Scribe

The pre-game meeting is becoming the best part of Rotary! Pandemic President Robin prepared us for an off-the-wall all-in effort for Toys for Tots. Bob Griffin offered the invocation and Dick Hoffmann asked our visiting Rotarians and guests to identify themselves. We were joined by our old friend Col Mike Wastila, USMC who thanked us for our past and future support for Toys for Tots.

In case you missed our Zoom meeting this week you can catch it here on YouTube:

Rotary Notes of Interest & Announcements

1. Rob Taylor and The Diva, Mary Taylor, presented a long list of cultural offerings (which Pandemic President Robin will email out), and sang "I'll be Home for Christmas," which we all WILL be!
2. The ever popular Rotary Basics book provides our Rotary Minute and Sindy Schiller pointed us to the Objects of Rotary.
3. If you don't get enough culture from the Taylor's then Ray Karno suggests the City Ballet of San Diego.
4. Pandemic President Robin will also send out those opportunities.
5. Here's the deal on Santa Claus and best laid plans....due to the latest guidelines, we will sadly not be hosting the Santa parade. Stay safe, everyone!
6. The City of Coronado's Challenge 130 ends this Friday and Coronado Rotary's 3rd Place finish is virtually assured! Results will be published next week, but here's a hint: We're all chasing an 83 year old woman!!!
7. The results are in! Today's Silent Auction winners are as follows:
Vintage Coronado Images: Ivan Dunn
Piano Lesson: Rob Taylor
Napa Silver Oak Wine: John Duncan
Fresh Farmer's Basket: Amy Steward
Live Lobster: John Duncan
Connie Spitzer Artwork: Tom Mitchell
TG signed Hall of Fame Program: Bob Plumb
TG signed Aztec Basketball Poster: Virginia Bayer
TG signed batting helmet: Sue Ryan

Congratulations to all! Please contact the office to pay for and arrange to pick up your winnings!

Let's keep the Masked Celebrity game going! Who can tell us who's "Behind the Beard" (and was lucky enough to be photographed with these lovely ladies)? There may or may not be a prize for the first correct answer!

Rotarians still know how to have fun...Pandemic Porch Concerts with Sheriff Doug and the Rovers are just the ticket! Thanks guys!

Hohoho!
Even Santa agrees things look a bit different this year. Stay safe...we will be back together one day!

Program

He's not even a member yet and Pandemic President Robin still asked John Weisbarth to emcee our all fund-raising all the time program. First, one could just push some money over the transom for Toys for Tots. Second, generous Rotarians donated items for a silent auction to benefit Toys for Tots. Third, we had "mystery guests" and John did a great job emceeing and eliciting questions for our "guests." Upon unmasking we discovered our mystery guests were Coronado Police Chief Kaye, SD Padre announcer Mark Grant, and local Coronado legend Casey Tanaka. The good news: It was great fun and we raised at least $10,000 for Toys for Tots. The bad news: Pandemic President Robin declared that it "actually worked" which means we might see it again!!
