COROTATOR

Notes from the Scribe

After a lively pre-game meeting Pandemic President Robin asked Jim Kaufman to come in off the ski slopes and offer the invocation. Pandemic President Robin asked for guests of Rotarians and visiting Rotarians and we were off on our second meeting of the New Year.

In case you missed our Zoom meeting this week you can catch it here on YouTube:

Rotary Notes of Interest & Announcements

1. Who Am I? Tom Mitchell introduced Kelley Helfand as we are becoming the Rotary Club of Kansas City! Yes, another Chiefs and Royals fan! She's also a Wildcat from Northwestern University who has worked in Chicago, Sydney, Australia (during Y2K and the Olympics), Tucson, and finally Coronado. Kelley is married with two sons, one of whom plays volleyball! She and her family like to hike, paddleboard, and ski.
2. The first new member for 2021 is Helen Kupka who is sponsored by Carol Sommer and Dominique Davis. Suzanne Popp did the honors for our newest member.
3. Rotarians have an opportunity to serve the City and Sharp Coronado Hospital and help get everyone vaccinated for COVID-19. Nora Allen and LuAnn Miller are coordinating and you might jump the line to get the vaccine as an "essential worker!"
4. Sue Gillingham and the Chamber of Commerce have asked Rotarians to support their efforts to feed the volunteers. Together we're trying to raise $2000 and Rotarians stepped up and raised damn near the whole thing today! We're unbelievable!!!

Coronado Rotarians wasted no time in volunteering to assist with Sharp Coronado's Vaccine Clinic! Well done, Team Rotary!

Kelley Helfand gave an excellent Who Am I today—welcome to “Blue Badge Land”—whenever we get back to wearing badges!

And, we inducted our first member of 2021, Helen Kupka. Welcome to the club (finally), Helen!

Program

Dave Landon introduced San Diego County District Attorney Summer Stefan for a discussion of all the good they are doing as a community-centric DA office. Each community is different and needs a different approach from the DA. COVID has presented various problems for their office in terms of due process and court appearances. Jury trials have been on and off, and off! Due to COVID sex crimes are up, domestic violence is up, and scams are up. Big challenges for our DA, but she seems up to the task as she’s apolitical and dedicated to innovative solutions.
