Announcements

- ✦Editarians Needed✦ ✦ please contact Kirsten to volunteer to be one of the note-takers for our Rotary meetings. You take the notes, then Kim Manajek puts them in the news bulletin format. Your help is needed!
- Twin Peaks Rotary Board has an open position ✦ with Ashley Kasprzak's election as the club President Nominee for 2022-2023, a new Public Relations Chairperson is needed. Please let Kirsten know if you can serve in this capacity.
- Monday, July 20: the Dave Schey Memorial Golf Tournament at Fox Hill Club. 10 AM shotgun start; box lunch, 2 kegs, and silent auction back at the clubhouse afterwards. Teed reported that there are 108 golfers signed up. All set to go!
- Friday, August 28: United Way Day of Caring ✦ plan now to help with maintenance projects and gardening at TLC, socially distancing, of course. Details to follow. Charlene said that 10 or so volunteers are needed.
- Saturday, September 12: ✦Woohoomanity Bike Ride/fundraiser✦ ✦ today's program gave us all the details. Charlene and Larry Geary and Dietra Porter are planning to participate. Let Charlene know if you would like to join in.

Brag Bucks

(tuck those bucks in an envelope to turn in when we return to ✦in person✦ meetings)

- Many thanks to the Chrismans and the Lehmans for hosting the fun ✦happy hour✦ last Thursday evening in the Chrismans lovely backyard.
- Rick Kalamaya bragged that he and Nanci celebrated their 42nd anniversary yesterday and enjoyed an evening out on the patio at Martini's Bistro.
- Karin Snyder enjoyed spending the day with her ✦new, ✦ young adult granddaughter. Both Karin and her son are noticing remarkable similarities between Karin and granddaughter.

Trivia

Rick Kalamaya tested our biblical knowledge today.

- What are the only nuts mentioned in the Bible? almonds and pistachios
- What was the name of Moses's wife? Zipporah (aka ✦Mrs. Moses✦)
- How many suicides are mentioned in the Bible? Seven

Programs

Today's guest speaker was Pat McGuckin, who is the chairperson of the Woohoomanity Challenge Rotary work group. Pat, a third generation Rotarian, is a member of the Denver Southeast Club. Pat brought us information about the opportunity for Rotarians to raise funds for their local clubs.

The Woohoomanity Challenge will take place on September 12 in conjunction with the Denver Century Ride. First about the name: think woohoo! having fun + humanity serving those in need. There are 21 Rotary groups already involved in this fundraising opportunity. It should be fun for bike-riders and for non-bike-riders alike. Participants invite friends and family to make financial donations to help reach a stated goal much like the annual MS 150 ride or the Ride to End Polio.

The Denver Century Ride includes five routes that range from an easy 10-mile route, all the way up to the most challenging 100-mile ride. Approximately 2000 riders are expected (1800 participated in 2019.) The planning committee is working within the state COVID-19 safety precautions, so there will not be the Expo and street party at the conclusion of the event. All routes start and finish at the Shops at Northfield (north of I-70 in the old Stapleton Airport area.) See the map of the five routes and details on www.denvercenturyride.com. Also check out opportunities to volunteer on that website. Volunteers are needed as marshals along the designated routes, and as SAG Wagon (Support And Gear) drivers to assist bikers along the routes.

Pat encouraged Twin Peaks Rotarians to participate in the Woohoomanity Challenge to raise funds for our club's service projects. Approximately 8% will be deducted from the funds raised to cover the fees for book-keeping and credit card processing. In a time when many Rotary clubs have had to cancel fund-raising projects, the Woohoomanity Challenge offers an opportunity to raise awareness about Rotary, raise funds for Twin Peaks Rotary service projects, and be part of a big event that involves Rotarians from across District 5450.

Go to <https://www.bikesignup.com/woohoomanity> for complete instructions on how to participate. Also click on the Store button on this website to order Rotary Woohoomanity Challenge gear biking jerseys, T-shirts, face masks, and ball caps. Don't delay July 21 is the deadline for ordering jerseys and T-shirts.
