Announcements

- ◆ Editarians Needed ◆ please contact Kirsten Pellicer to volunteer to be one of the note-takers for our Rotary meetings. You take the notes and someone else puts them into the newsletter format and sends it out
- Twin Peaks Rotary Board has an open position for 2021-22 Rotary Year ◆ with Wendi Nazing leaving the treasurer's position, a new treasurer is needed. Please let Dean know if you are interested in this opportunity.
- Saturday, January 16th, meet at 9am at the parking area for the monthly clean up of the Dickens Farm Nature Area. Help to pick up trash and keep this area beautiful. This is an great activity for Rotary Families!

Student of the Month

This month's honoree is an outstanding female musician.

Haven Cordova from Longmont High School has been involved in band, orchestra and choir. Haven also volunteers in numerous local organizations.

Brag Bucks

(Tuck those bucks in an envelope to turn in when we return to ◆ in person ◆ meetings or send a check to Wendi with note "Brag Bucks".)

- Larry Gearing bragged that his Mom, Dorothy, just turned 95.
- Chris Treharne bragged that his son has just received a promotion.
- Charlene Gearing bragged that the Green Bay Packers won their division and got a bye in the playoffs.
- Others? No notes were provided.

Note takers needed!

Trivia

Rick Kalamaya led us through a series of tricky trivia questions. Eric Kittleberger nailed most of them. (Eric is a Jeopardy expert too!)

Induction

Gil Sparks was inducted into membership at this meeting. Gil has been a very active Rotarian in his prior club and is also an eight time Paul Harris Fellow. Gil is retired from a career in law. His one son lives in Lyons and his other is Sevastpol CA. Gil and his wife Kay moved here to be closer to their family/grandchildren.

Rotary Opens Opportunities

Today's guest speaker was Pat Gill, an Infectious Disease expert. She spoke about COVID 19 Vaccines. Including an overview of the structure of the COVID19 virus; the types of vaccines being developed; the approval process; and the differences amongst the approved vaccines. She also reviewed the timeline for roll out of the vaccine. In Boulder County residents can sign up to be notified when it is their turn via this website:
