Birthday: We celebrated Bob Brandewiede's birthday with a whimsical rendition of Happy Birthday.

Guest Speakers: Bill Reininger

For ten years, Bill Reininger worked for Forest Park Forever as Park Operations Manager. Before that, he worked for parks in Crestwood and University City, and also as a horticulturist at the Missouri Botanical Garden. Reininger is a University of Missouri graduate with degrees in urban forestry and horticulture.

In 2015, he was chosen from a field of 70 candidates to be the Executive Director of Tower Grove Park. The 289-acre Tower Grove Park, the second-largest in St. Louis, was created in 1868 by a gift of land from Henry Shaw. The Park contains over seven thousand trees.

The meeting closed with the Four Way Test.
