Announcements:

- The monthly parking lot clean up will take place on October 2 at 8:00am. Meet at the commuter lot at the southeast corner of Gravois and I-270.
- Substitute volunteers are still needed for the food delivery program. Contact Amy Richards if you are available to help.
- The next packing dates for the Feed the Knowledge program are:
 - October 1 at 4:00 PM - unloading the truck
 - October 2 at 9:00 am - packing bags

Both of these will take place at Truman School at 12225 Eddie & Park.

- Our Fall Golf Tournament will be October 8 at Pevely Farms Golf course. Volunteers and golfers are still needed. Signup should be completed by October 1. Contact Dave Dilthey for further details.
- Wally mentioned that after several days in the hospital Fred Wolff is home and recuperating.

Happy Bucks: Greg Luzecky, Karen Baudendistel, Jim Simpson, Diana Lineberger and John Higdon.

Social Media Moment: Romy Uelk sent a reminder about our golf tournament taking place on October 8.

Birthday: Birthday person Bill Uthoff was not present, so we sang to Wally Littlefield, whose birthday is October 1.

Speaker: Our guest speaker was Cherol Thibaut. Cherol is a member of the Kirkwood Rotary Club. She is an accountant by trade and to feed the other side of her brain, she is a member of The Kirkwood Theatre Guild. She is also the costumer at CBC High School. This is her 24th season with the Guild and her 16th season as the President of the Guild. Upcoming productions include The Man Who Came to Dinner (November); Cat On A Hot Tin Roof (January); Calendar Girls (March) and Singin' In The Rain (June). Kirkwood Theatre Guild is now in their new location at the Kirkwood Performing Arts Center located at South Taylor and Monroe, across from the Kirkwood Post Office.
