Why am I a Rotarian? - July 6, 2021

By Sarah M. Watson

Join us at Springfield Metro Rotary on July 6, 2021 to dig into the discussion
◆Why am I a Rotarian?◆

We have an extremely exciting panel lined up of not only fellow Rotarians, but extraordinary community leaders. Each individual joined Rotary at different times in their lives and more than likely for different reasons. Some have been in Rotary for many years, and some not as long. If I was a betting person, I would bet that their ◆Why◆ to join Rotary and their ◆Why◆ to stay in Rotary has changed during this time as well. Our panel will consist of the following Rotarians:

- Brian Weiler, Director of Aviation for the Springfield-Branson National Airport. Brian joined Springfield Downtown Rotary club in December 2011 and is the Club President for the 2021-2022 Rotary year.

- Gail Noggle, Executive Director for the City of Bolivar and Director of Economic Development for the Economic Development Alliance. Gail joined Springfield Downtown in July of 2012 and is the President Elect for the 2021-2022 Rotary year.

- Lisa Blumenstock, Attorney at Lisa Ghan Blumenstock, Attorney at Law. Lisa joined Springfield Southeast in February 2015 and is the Club President for the 2021-2022 Rotary year.

- Padgett Smith, Owner of The Permit Shop. Padgett joined Springfield Metro in April of 2018 and is a continually active club member.

◆When you know your ◆why◆ then your ◆what◆ has more impact, because you◆re working towards your purpose.◆◆ Michael Jr.

Everyone◆s ◆why◆ is different. Of course, we all like the fellowship and being able to give to our community. But, WHY? Take a little time and dig into these questions regarding you and being a Rotarian.

1. What do I do as a Rotarian?
2. How do I do it?
3. For whom do I do it?
4. Why do I do it? What value am I bringing?

A story is told by John C. Maxwell of a man who came across three bricklayers busy at work. The man asked the first bricklayer what he was doing. ◆I◆m laying bricks,◆ the worker replied. He then asked the second bricklayer the same question. ◆I◆m putting up a wall,◆ he said. The passerby then asked the question one more time, this time to the third bricklayer. The response: ◆I◆m building a cathedral.◆

As this story illustrates, three different workers can do the exact same task but for very different reasons. The first may have labored exclusively for the paycheck. He saw his work as exactly that, a task that needed to be completed regardless of the outcome. When the bell rang, he was out the door. The second was likely motivated by a sense of completion and was proud that his bricklaying would result in the construction of a wall. Perhaps he would add a few extra minutes here and there in order to see the goal to completion. But the third was no doubt driven by a deep desire to fashion a religious structure that would enhance worship and bring glory to the divine. Every brick was a step towards that grandiose vision and aspiration. No doubt that such a person would do whatever was needed in order to see his glorious visualization come to fruition.

We all have our own reasons as to Why we are a Rotarian, lets each figure out what that is and increase our impact!
