Happy Monday to my Fellow Rotarians! Here's this week's club news: CycloCross World Cup is Wednesday, Oct. 13. On Thursday, Molly Rawn from Experience Fayetteville will speak with us this week about how Fayetteville came to be chosen to host this cyclocross World Championship that will attract racers from 25 countries.

Rotary Halloween Trick or Treat Bike Fright: We're excited to announce our upcoming fun volunteer opportunity that will take place in Gregory Park (the mountain biking park just behind McDonalds on College Ave.) on Sunday, Oct. 31, 4pm-6:30pm. Rotarians will get a chance to dress up and give out candy to young riders. We'll begin asking for volunteers to sign up at Thursdays' meeting.

Revised Club Bylaws: Howard Brill and I have made some needed changes to the club bylaws that the board has approved. The changes deal with the officers, information technology coordinator, 6 directors (instead of 8), responsibilities assigned to each of the five directorates. The changes for you to review are marked in RED on the hyperlinked document. Please review these changes so we can vote on it at our next club meeting. The current bylaws are available to review in dacdb, under Club Files. If you have any concerns about these changes, feel free to email Erica Estes at ericae@uark.edu.
